

A black and white graphic featuring a tree. The upper portion of the tree, including its trunk and branches, is set against a light background with a faint grid pattern. The lower portion of the tree, representing its roots, is set against a dark background and is depicted as a complex network of white lines resembling a circuit board or a digital data network. The text 'web3privacy now' is centered at the bottom of the image, with a small white square symbol between the words 'privacy' and 'now'.
